All Grand Rapids Public Library Locations Closed

GRAND RAPIDS (March 13, 2020) In the interest of public health, all Grand Rapids Public Library locations will be closed starting Saturday, March 14 for the foreseeable future.

Library staff will extend due dates and waive fines on material during this time. Patrons can return items to outside book returns or keep the material until we reopen to the public.

GRPL's digital services will still be available for free, including eBooks and eAudiobooks; streaming TV, movie and music services; research databases; and digital subscriptions to magazines.

Any information about further changes to library services will be posted on our website grpl.org and on our social media pages. For more information on COVID-19, please visit grpl.org/coronavirus.

The Grand Rapids Public Library inspires opportunity, connection, and innovation.
